

Talking about health

I've only been in hospital once.

I've never had a bad accident.

I often have colds and coughs in the winter.

I had a bad stomachache last week.

My friend had flu in December and had a high temperature.

My sister has a lot of allergies like hayfever.

I've got good teeth and have never had toothache but I sometimes get bad earache.

I often feel tired in the evenings after school.

I've never felt depressed but I feel unhappy sometimes.

After the accident, I felt faint and very weak.

I felt sick on the boat to France.

I need to do more sport, eat more fruit and sleep more.

I need to eat less pizza and spend less time on my computer.

I need to stop eating sweets and biscuits.

Talking about health Complete the description.

My aunt is not very old but she has been ¹ in hospital lots of times. In the winter, she often ² _____ colds and flu and in the summer she gets bad ³ _____ fever. In the spring and autumn, she often ⁴ _____ a bit depressed and tired. She's also got bad teeth and often has ⁵ _____. She needs to ⁶ _____ more sport, eat ⁷ _____ junk food and ⁸ _____ smoking.

Collocations: Accidents Complete the story.

Last year, I ¹ had quite a bad accident. I was riding my bike to school when a car crashed into me. I was ² _____ for a few minutes and when I woke up in the ambulance, my leg ³ _____ a lot. I also had a ⁴ _____ in my left arm and it was ⁵ _____ a bit, but not badly. In the ambulance, I ⁶ _____ an injection and when I got to the hospital, a doctor gave me an ⁷ _____ to check my leg. I had a broken leg but my arm wasn't ⁸ _____. Luckily, I didn't need to ⁹ _____ an operation. I was in hospital for twenty-four hours but it took me three months to get ¹⁰ _____ my broken leg.

