

SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS

Directions: Select the pronoun in each sentence and indicate whether it is a subject or object pronoun.

1. The students did extremely well on the exam, so the teacher rewarded them. subject object
2. The class performed in the play, and they did very well. subject object
3. Melvin entered the science fair; he won first place. subject object
4. Emma performed at the concert; her mother is proud. subject object
5. Mom ordered pizza for us! subject object

Directions: Choose the correct option needed to correct each sentence.

1. Kim and me went to the park this afternoon.
a. Kim and I
b. Me and Kim
c. I and Kim
2. Tyler and he want more ice cream and cake.
a. Him and Tyler
b. Tyler and him
c. He and Tyler
3. I made lunch for mom and they.
a. they and Mom
b. mom and them
c. they and I
4. Did you have fun at the playground with I and him?
a. me and him
b. They
c. he and me
5. Grandma and her left the park because it was raining.
a. Them
b. Grandma and her
c. She and Grandma

Directions: Choose the correct pronoun from the word to complete each sentence. Drag and drop the correct answer.

I you me this us my they we her your he them your him ours

1. Mary wants to talk to _____ about her homework.
2. The boxes are carrying wood. _____ are heavy!
3. Alice says she gave _____ my sunglasses. Have you got _____?
4. He lied to _____ before. He may do it again.
5. That is Sam's brother, I know _____ well. _____ is in my class.

Directions: Match the sentences in Column A to those in Column B to form one complete sentence.

Column A

1. The cub is miserable.
2. Is Maggie in her bedroom?
3. The extension stopped working.
4. Those jeans are horrible!
5. Those exercises are quite difficult.

Column B

- I haven't seen her.
We have to replace it.
I hate them.
I don't understand them.
He is missing his mother.

