Hi Karen,

How's life? I'm just sooo busy! I have a 12-hour day today.

I'm meeting with the geriatric consultant at 9 a.m. to discuss treatment for one of my patients. Then I'm seeing my supervisor to write an order for supplies in the clean supply room. After that I'm feeding patients in rooms 10 to 30. I only have 15 minutes for my lunch, so I'm meeting Stefan in the nurses' lounge for a quick sandwich. In the afternoon I'm checking medical records with the receptionist and then I'm phoning an insurance company about a patient in room 15. That always takes a long time. After that I'm checking IV fluids in all the rooms. It's nonstop!

Anyway, that's all for now! Off to work!
Lisa
