

THE ADJECTIVE

Adjectives tell us something about a person or a thing:

Adjectives can modify nouns and pronouns:

Regularly, adjectives are placed before the noun:

Adjectives go after the verb to be:

You can use more than one adjective to describe a noun:

The car is blue.

Lili is a beautiful girl.

The big car, a red rose.

Susan and Mary are good friends.

A fat old cat.

---

---

---

It is possible to use many adjectives to describe something. If so, in English, adjectives follow an order:

Opinion: Pretty, horrible.

Size: Big, huge, small.

Age: New, old, young.

Color: Black, red, white.

Origin: British, Chinese, American.

Ex: A pretty, small, old, red, American table.

Task 3.

Choose two objects from your place and describe them using the order of adjectives, as in the previous example.

TASK1

- Read the text about Food and markets around the world.
- Look at the questions (1-5) and mark each statement with T for true or F for false.

TOP 5 FOOD MARKET

Supermarkets are good for everyday shopping. But food markets are great for fresh food and local dishes. Here are our top five markets from around the world.

St Lawrence, Toronto, Canada St Lawrence food market, in the centre of Toronto, is 200 years old. There are a lot of shops here (well over 100) with every kind of meat and seafood. Shoppers visit from all over the world.

Castries Market, St Lucia Naturally, this island in the Caribbean has a market famous for fish and fruit. Buy some bananas for lunch and some fish for dinner. And try the local sauce – it's very hot!

Kreta Ayer Wet Market, Singapore There's a lot of different food here and there's also a great restaurant upstairs. Go at around 6 a.m. and have some tasty noodles for breakfast.

La Vucciria, Palermo, Italy There aren't many markets in the world with live music. But in Palermo, musicians play and sing as shoppers buy their sausages and kebabs. It's a great atmosphere!

Borough Market, London, England This market is 250 years old and famous with food lovers. It's open from Thursday to Saturday and it's good to go very early. There isn't much food for sale after 10 a.m.!
