I like my toast done on one side
I'm an Englishman in New York
I don't drink coffee, I take tea, my dear
And you can hear it in my accent when I talk

Put the words in the right space

Cane everywhere Fifth

See me walking down Avenue
A walking here at my side
I take it I walk
I'm an Englishman in New York

Chorus

Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York

---

Order the lines

Be yourself no matter what they say
If "manners maketh man" as someone said
It takes a man to suffer ignorance and smile

He's the hero of the day

Chorus

Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York

---

Choose

Modesty, propriety can lead to/ from notoriety
You could end up/down as the only one
Gentleness, sobriety are rare/weird in this society
At night a candle's brighter than/from the sun

Takes more than combat gear to make/ do a man
Takes more than a license for/by a gun
Confront your enemies, avoid them when/if you can
A gentleman will/is walk but never run

If "manners maketh man" as someone said
He's the hero of the day
It takes a man to suffer ignorance and smile
Be yourself no matter what they say
Be yourself no matter what they say...
