BASED ON UNIT 6 TEXT: "What makes us happy?"

1- Decide if the following statements are TRUE or FALSE. Give evidence for your answers. (5)

a. In some countries, the lack of the need for material possessions results in achieving happiness. Lines:
Evidence:

b. Richard Easterlin's theory was met with the agreement of contemporary researchers. Lines:
Evidence:

c. According to Gilovich's study, experiential purchases bring about more satisfaction than purchasing goods. Lines:
Evidence:

d. Negative experiences usually cause disenchantment and lead to negative moods. Lines:
Evidence:

e. Comparing experiences is often the cause of envy. Lines:
Evidence:

2- Complete the gaps with the correct words. (5)

a. _____ (eat) a balanced diet has important benefits _____ your health.
b. Affluenza, _____ affects people across all age groups and socio-economic and cultural backgrounds, is a term derived _____ the words affluence (wealth) and influenza (also known as the flu).
c. If parents didn't go through to feed into their children's demands to have the latest and greatest material things, kids _____ (be) able to tolerate frustration _____ (good).
d. If I had learned to play down my failures and emphasized my successes _____ I was younger, I _____ (have) much happier teenage years.
e. "How did you feel when you were volunteering?", the teacher asked her.
The teacher asked her _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS