The History of Pop Art

----	---

32	He made sculptures of everyday items, such as a hamburger, cookies, and a brush.
33	In the beginning, he created soft sculptures.
34	They were made of plastic, paper, and other soft materials.
35	For example, he used cloth to make toilets.
36	Later, he made huge sculptures of daily items, such as an ice cream cone.
37	Wanting everyone to enjoy his art, he set up his works in outdoor places.
38	He also ran a store inside his studio to sell his works.
39	For him, artistic works were fun goods for people.

The introduction of Roy Lichtenstein

40	Roy Lichtenstein used cartoons in his works.
41	They were large and painted in lively colors.
42	He even included speech balloons in his paintings. *speech balloons: 말풍선
43	Back then, cartoons were not regarded as an art form. *Back then:그때 당시에 *be regarded as:~로 간주되다.
44	However, Roy Lichtenstein thought differently.
