

THEORY

THIRD CONDITIONAL- USES

If + past perfect (never occurred/impossible situation)

Would + present perfect (the consequence)

-If I had studied, I would have passed the test

With comma

Without comma

Could should

-I'd have passed the test if I had studied

-If I had a studied,

{ I could/should have passed the test

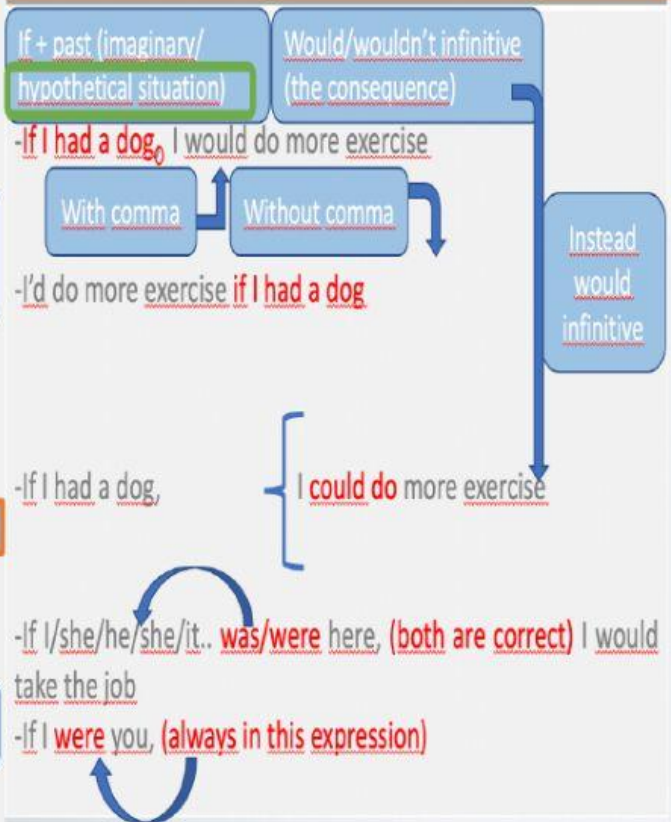

THEORY

FIRST VS SECOND VS THIRD CONDITIONAL- OVERVIEW

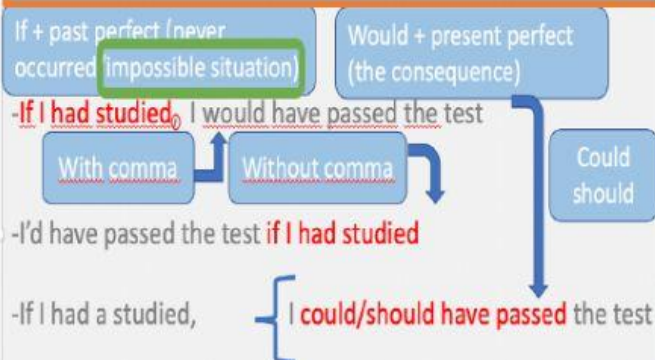

FIRST CONDITIONAL - USES

SECOND CONDITIONAL - USES

THIRD CONDITIONAL - USES

MÉTODO ISO - JMB

EXERCISES

TRANSLATION

Complete with the correct form of the verb:

He will be depressed if he fails the exam (be)

1. If I see her, I'll tell her. (see)
2. If I would buy this dress, I (be) taller.
3. If I would have gone to Japan, I (have) enough money.

1. Si la veo, se lo diré.
2. Si fuera más alta, me compraría este vestido.
3. Si hubiera tenido suficiente dinero, habría ido a Japón (tenía)

MÉTODO ISO - JMB