An adventure at home

Costa Rica is a small country with great biodiversity. In this country, there are many kinds of birds, rivers, mountains, flowers, lakes, bugs, volcanoes... Great flora and fauna to know!

Adventurous people can go rafting, hiking, surfing, hiking, kayaking, climbing, wind surfing or hot air ballooning. There are many natural places like natural parks and reserves to do these activities.

In this country, there are also a lot of rural areas to visit. For example, Turrialba in Cartago, Fortuna in Guanacaste, Cóbano in Puntarenas, Cahuita in Limón and Santa María in San José are interesting places that local and international tourists can visit to have fun and enjoy nature.

In Costa Rica, your garden or yard are incredible places to find insects and flowers, too!
