

Complete the sentences.

1. When you _____ someone or something you recognise and correctly name someone or something.
2. People or organisations that are in charge of a particular country or area are called the _____
3. If something is a _____ to crime, it acts to reduce the chance of it happening.
4. To _____ information is to keep facts in a computer or in a file.
5. To find information on a computer is to _____ data.
6. Carefully watch something over a period of time, for example a nurse _____ a patient's condition.
7. Crime _____ is all about stopping something bad from happening before it occurs.
8. If you _____ of someone who is moving, you always know their position.