

Facts and statistics about Australia

Listen and complete the gaps with the correct word or number

1. The current population of Australia is _____ and it's increasing by _____ people per year.
2. Western Australia grows by more people _____ than Tasmania adds every year which is only _____.
3. There are almost _____ more women than men in Australia and there are more people in _____ born in _____ than from the UK.
4. Only _____ Australians uses _____ to get to work and more people _____ than catch a bus or ride a bicycle.
5. The average street of _____ households has _____ babies (aged under 3), _____ cats and _____ dogs.
6. The average Australian stays with their employer just _____ and 4 months – only a _____ of the way towards long service leave. If this plays out in the lifetime of a school leaver today it means they will have _____ separate employers in their lifetime.
7. _____ makes for a fascinating study in populations by gender, with Pyrmont having _____ more males than females whereas the next suburb over the Anzac bridge, Balmain, has _____ more females than males.
8. _____ households has a net worth exceeding _____, and 1% of households have wealth above _____.
9. Three decades ago the median age of an Australian was _____, today it is _____ and in _____ it is projected to be _____.
10. Life expectancy at birth three decades ago was _____, today it is _____ and in 2044, it is projected to be more than _____.
11. The average _____ spends _____ each day on screen time – and due to 'multi-screening' this is achieved in just under 8 hours of linear time.
12. If you lived on an average sized street in Australia comprised of _____ households, on that street there would be a marriage every _____, a _____ every 7 months and a birth every _____.