Separation anxiety disorder: Separation anxiety is often thought of as something that only children deal with; however, adults can also be diagnosed with separation anxiety disorder. People who have separation anxiety disorder have fears about being parted from people to whom they are attached. They often worry that some sort of harm or something untoward will happen to their attachment figures while they are separated. This fear leads them to avoid being separated from their attachment figures and to avoid being alone. People with separation anxiety may have nightmares about being separated from attachment figures or experience physical symptoms when separation occurs or is anticipated.

HOW TO ANNOTATE TEXT

the Schwartzman way

When you read, it's important to annotate, or interact with a text.

You naturally have ideas, feelings, or make mental images, so show that you're thinking.

Pause and jot down those .

Write down any to other texts, movies, or events that you notice.

a part that is confusing to you. Ask the author a question about a passage.

Notice and comment upon a - simile, metaphor, alliteration, repetition, irony, symbolism, etc. What effect does it create for you?

Explain the moments of impact. How are you feeling? Is this what the author hoped you would feel? How did the author create this feeling in you?

When you encounter a that you don't know, look it up in the dictionary and write down its definition.

Use your skills. Is the author using a passage or relationship to try to tell you something deeper than what is being said directly?

★ Remember, underlining or highlighting majority of text is NOT annotating.
