GEOGRAPHY OF THE UK

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH THE RIGHT WORD FROM THE BOX.

made up of located surrounded below narrow border
England islands modern Scotland location link

The United Kingdom is a country which is _____ on a group of islands, called the British Isles, between the North Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. They _____ more than 6000 _____. The largest of them are Great Britain, Ireland, and the Orkney Islands, the Shetland Islands, the Hebrides in _____, as well as the Isles of Scilly and the Isle of Wight in _____. The country is _____ by the waters of the North and Irish Seas, the Atlantic Ocean and the English Channel between England and France. Its _____ on an island gives it only one land _____ - between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland. The English Channel is quite _____, so it made the _____ between England and France quite easy. First, there are a lot of _____ ships going between the two countries. Second, there are Eurostar trains running _____ the sea bottom through the Channel Tunnel.

LIVEWORKSHEETS