

Phrasal verbs – TAKE

Complete the sentences with after, away, back, down, part in, for, off, on, in, out, over, through, to or up.

- When we last visited Mary, she took us ____ for a drink.
- Anna has just been taken ____ as a sales manager in P&G.
- I always take ____ my shoes and put on my slippers when I get home.
- Victoria took ____ her father as for her character. She's equally kind.
- Gerald Ford took ____ the presidency after Nixon resigned.
- I'll have to take this cardigan ____ to the shop because it has shrunk.
- Recently Tom has taken ____ the violin.
- My father took some of the books ____ because I didn't need them.
- Rachel is exhausted because she has taken ____ too much work.
- The secretary took ____ the message.
- The shop assistant told me that I could take the shirt ____ if it doesn't fit my grandmother.
- As the rep took us ____ all the steps, we were impressed by the standard of work.
- The plane was delayed by the thunderstorm and took ____ at 11 instead of 8.
- Please, help me. It won't take ____ a lot of your time, I promise.
- I have always taken ____ these singing competitions but I have never taken any prizes.
- When I saw her after her brother's death, I took her ____ an elderly lady at first!
- Lately he's taken ____ staying up till the middle of the night.
- He told me that it was a genuine diamond, and I was completely taken ____.