Demonstratives and Possessives

Demonstratives

	Singular	Plural
Demonstrative Pronoun	This is a cat. That is a dog. I want this. I want that.	These are cats. Those are dogs. I want these. I want those.
Demonstrative Adjective	This cat is cute. That dog is smart.	These cats are cute. Those dogs are smart.

A. Write this or these.

1. _____ paintings are from Italy.
2. _____ is a new coat.
3. I want to borrow _____ book.
4. _____ are red pens.
5. Can I play with _____ toy?
6. Do you know _____ men?

B. Write that or those.

1. Is _____ your dad's car?
2. _____ shirt is on sale.
3. _____ presents are for Kelly?
4. _____ are big gorillas.
5. _____ children are in 4th grade.
6. _____ is my brother.
7. Are _____ your books?
8. Is _____ our tent.

The Possessive with 's

Mike's cat is white.
My friend's bike is new.
My friends' bikes are new.
The children's bags are blue.

- Making the possessive form:
  Mike → Mike's friend → friend's friends → friends'
  child → child's children → children's

- The possessive with 's shows that someone has something.

C. Write the possessive form of the noun.

1. men _____ shoes
2. Bella _____ bedroom

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. my sister _____ school

4. girls _____ dresses

5. my teachers _____ names

6. women _____ necklaces

7. an eagle _____ wings

D. Choose and write the possessive form.

elephants	mom	monkey	penguin	teachers	women

1. The _____ tail is long. It has long arms and legs too.
2. My _____ sandwiches are always delicious.
3. The _____ home is Antarctica. It is very cold there.
4. _____ ears are huge. They have a long trunk too.
5. Where is your teacher? He is in the _____ room.
6. Are these _____ shirts? No, those are for men.

LIVEWORKSHEETS