Replace the of-phrase with the Possessive Case ('s)

 the keys of my husband - my husband's keys.

1. the laugh of the chubby child

_____

2. the name of his nephew

_____

3. the books of their parents

_____

4. the jokes of Tom

_____

5. the beard of your grandfather

_____

6. the freckles of my sister-in-law

_____

7. the curly hair of our cousin

_____

8. the apartment of Nick and Jane

_____

9. the palm of her father-in-law

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the correct words

1. Sam is married to Mary, so he is _____ husband.
2. His wife has a dog called Ben, so Ben is _____ dog.
3. _____ friend has many relatives in the USA.
4. Whose room is it? It's _____ room.
5. Wendy knows _____ teacher.
6. My granny and grandpa sleep here. So this is my _____ bed.
7. Your _____ fingers are long.

Look at the 's in the sentences. Choose 's (possessive) or is

This is my sister's bag. – 's

My sister's nice. – is

1. Lisa's son-in-law is American. _____
2. It's a great book. _____
3. Andrew's at the university. _____
4. This is my brother's car. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Molly's daughter is very beautiful.

6. What's in your bag?

7. Helen's very nice.

8. The boys are Matt's cousins.

9. The walls of Ed's apartment are thin.

10. My cousin's sleepy and tired today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS