

SHORT ANSWERS WITH "SO" OR "NOR/NEITHER"

- We can use so (do) I and nor/neither (do) I to show that we think the same as another person.
- Use so in positive sentences when having the same feelings or experiences:

A: I love reading. / B: So do I.

- Use the same auxiliary verbs or modal verbs in the reply:

A: I am sad. A: She will skate tomorrow. A: They can run fast. A: I have eaten a lot.

B: So am I. B: So will I. B: So can I. B: So have I.

- We use nor or neither in negative sentences:

A: I don't like chocolate. / B: Nor/Neither do I.

Choose the correct replies.

I can't play the guitar.

Neither can I.

So can I.

Katy is French.

So am I.

So will I.

I had to study last night.

So did I.

Nor have I.

They have been to Spain.

So am I.

So have I.

I would like a cup of tea.

So did I.

So would I.

She won't read a novel

Neither will I.

So will I.

We didn't pass the exam.

Neither can I.

Nor did I.

Lily hasn't brought her laptop.

Nor did I.

Neither have I.

Dary lives in Mexico.

Neither do I.

So do I.

Peter will go to the party.

So will I.

So do I.