There Wasn't Anything for You

- I'm tired! The shopping mall was very crowded.

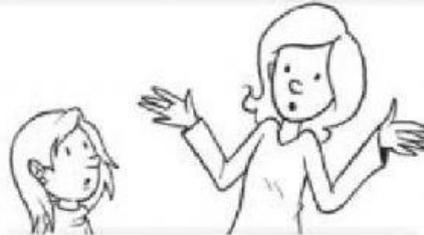

- Do you have my stickers?
- There weren't any stickers at the toy store, but I have a poster for you.

- Do you have my pens and my notebooks?
- I wasn't at the stationery, but I have a T-shirt for you.

- Chester, there weren't any balloons in the supermarket. Don't look sad. I have a ball for you!

- Do you have a present for me?
- Oops, there wasn't anything for you. I'm sorry.

- I'm only joking. Of course I have a present for you, Olga. Do you like it?
