

UNIT 1 • LESSON 5, ACTIVITY 2

Grammar Worksheet

Present unreal conditional; wish

Study the charts.

Present Unreal Conditional
If clause	Result clause
If Eva had more time,	she would travel.
If you were rich,	would you buy a big house?
If there were a mountain here,	we could climb it.

Wishes About Present/Future Situations
I wish I knew how to take good photos.
She wishes she were good at singing.
Does he wish he could ski?

Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verb.

Hey Jack,

I'm sorry, but I can't come to your 30th birthday party tonight. I wish

I could (can) get away, but I'll be working late . . . again!

If I (not have to work) 80 hours a week,

I (be) there, for sure. If I (have) any free time at all, I (spend) more time with you and my other friends. I wish things (be) different. In fact, if

I (have) the time and money,

I (buy) you that piano you've always wanted. Can you imagine how well you (play) if you (practice) every day on your own piano?

Anyway, I guess that's enough dreaming for today. Again, I'm sorry I can't make the party, and I hope you have a wonderful night!

All the best to you,

Sandy
