

LET'S WORK WITH INDEFINITE PRONOUNS!

1 Choose the correct options.

- 1 In Adam's town, young people had nothing / something to do and no one / everyone got into trouble.
- 2 Hannah is someone / anyone special because she always wants to do nothing / something to help people in need. Is there anyone / no one like her in your school?
- 3 Nothing / No one benefits from wars. In Afghanistan, for example, a lot of people lost everything / something as a result of the war.

2 Complete the sentences with indefinite pronouns.

- 1 ... in my class studies English.
- 2 Is there ... in your class from Russia?
- 3 Come here! I've got ... to tell you.
- 4 It's boring here. There's ... to do.
- 5 I'll probably get a good mark. I've studied ...
- 6 I'm not doing ... special this weekend.

Complete the sentences with indefinite pronouns so that they are true for you.

- 1 This afternoon, I have _____ to do.
- 2 In my country, people usually donate _____ when there's an emergency.
- 3 I believe _____ can help me solve my worries.
- 4 I think _____ should give me their opinion on my decisions.

3 Choose the correct options.

(1) Nobody / Everyone can do (2) something / everything to help. Almost (3) everybody / someone has excuses for not taking action but the truth is there's always (4) nothing / something you can do to make other people's lives better. Remember, there's (5) nothing / something worse than remaining passive. Take a moment to answer this question: Is there (6) anyone / no one I can help? For sure, the answer is Yes!

Complete the sentences with indefinite pronouns.

- 1 They will have to rebuild the town because _____ was destroyed during the war.
- 2 Does _____ want to help to raise money for tsunami victims in Japan?
- 3 Some people live in very dry areas, so crops don't grow and there isn't _____ to eat.
- 4 _____ is so expensive these days!
- 5 There's _____ at the door. Can you go and answer?
- 6 There's _____ to watch on TV. Why don't we go to the cinema?
- 7 A plane has crashed in Egypt and _____ has survived. It's a terrible disaster.
- 8 I've got _____ to ask you.

LET'S WORK WITH HAVE TO/HAD TO!

1 Complete the sentences with affirmative or negative present simple forms of have to.

- 1 Marina has a history test on Friday. Marina ... study history for Friday.
- 2 Tomorrow is a holiday. The school is closed. We ... go to school tomorrow.
- 3 Daphne has an appointment with the dentist this afternoon. Daphne ... go to the dentist's this afternoon.
- 4 The teacher didn't give exercises 3 and 4 as homework. We ... do exercises 3 and 4.

3 Complete the sentences and questions with the correct form of have to and the verbs in brackets.

- 1 Nelson Mandela wanted to stop discrimination in South Africa and he ... (fight) against it.
- 2 Many years ago in the USA, black people ... (give up) their seats on buses.
- 3 ... (Martin Luther King / spend) many years in prison? No, he didn't. Nelson Mandela ... (spend) 27 years in prison.
- 4 When Nelson Mandela was in prison, he ... (not do) hard jobs but he ... (sleep) on the floor of a small cell.