Brief Explanation

We use the past simple, in its interrogative form, to ask about situations that occurred and finished in the past. When we use the past simple in its interrogative form, we start with did followed by the subject and the verb in its base form (the sentence ends with a question mark).

Application

1-Did you (swam-swim-swims) slowly.

2-Who did you (meets-meet-meeting) at the park?

Evaluation

1-Did mum a cake?

a-made b- makes c- make

2-What did Alilast Friday?

a-does b- did c- do
