

Work & Skills: present to PAST

Remember Ying? (Please look on p. 64.)

A year ago her manager asked her to work in the evenings. Ying changed her work schedule and her English class schedule.

Change the verbs from the paragraphs to the PAST.

Ying works in a restaurant. She is a server. She works every day from 9:00 to 5:00. She takes an English class in the evening. She really likes the class. The teacher is great, and the students are friendly.

One day the manager says to Ying, "You need to work in the evening." Ying wants to continue learning English, but she needs the job. She finds an online class. This is her first online class. It's not so friendly.

Ying _____ in a restaurant. She _____ a server. She _____ every day from 9:00 to 5:00. She _____ an English class in the evening. She really _____ the class. The teacher _____ great, and the students _____ friendly.

One day the manager _____ to Ying, "You need to work in the evening." Ying _____ to continue learning English, but she _____ the job. She _____ an online class. This _____ her first online class. It _____ not so friendly.

Regular or Irregular

1. was / were	regular	irregular
2. liked	regular	irregular
3. found	regular	irregular
4. needed	regular	irregular
5. wanted	regular	irregular
6. said	regular	irregular
7. took	regular	irregular
8. worked	regular	irregular