

Paul meets Mary in a shopping centre and he asks her about her holidays.

Paul: Hi, Mary. What 1) _____ here? (you/do)

Mary: Hello Paul. I'm buying some clothes.

Paul: Tell me about your last holidays. Where 2) _____ ? (you/go)

Mary: I visited Paris.

Paul: 3) _____ the city? (you/like)

Mary: Yes, I did.

Paul: What 4) _____ like? (the weather/be)

Mary: It was really cold. It was winter.

Paul: 5) _____ a difficult language? (French/be)

Mary: No, it isn't for me.

Two workmates are talking during break time after their winter holidays

Ronald: 1) _____ on holiday last winter? (you/go)

George: Yes, to Las Leñas in Mendoza

Ronald: 2) _____ nice? (the trip/be)

George: Yes, very. I love skiing.

Ronald: 3) _____ with you? (your parents/ be)

George: No, they weren't. I went with my girlfriend July and her brothers.

4) _____ skiing? (you/ like)

Ronald: Yes, I do, but I'm a beginner. 5) _____ courses for beginners? (there/be)

George: Sure. Look, we go skiing every winter .You can come along with us next time.

Two friends are talking about literature.

Alan: 1) _____ reading? (you/like)

Ian: Yes, I love it!

Alan: 2) What _____ of Harry Potter? (you/think)

Ian: It's fantastic! It's my favourite book!

Alan: 3) _____ a writer? (your father/be)

Ian: Yes, he is. He writes very well.

Alan: 4) _____ a book right now? (he/write)

Ian: No, he isn't. He is in Europe.

Alan: In Europe? When _____ there? (he/travel)

Ian: He travelled yesterday.