

Think of the word for the definition.

1. very interesting / useful information or ideas presented at the event

2. to be officially accepted to the event

3. to go to the event

4. continuing for a long time

5. useful piece of advice

6. to open your abilities and see what you can do better

7. to be too fixed on some particular job or activity

8. an official document used to prove that you have been to a class or course for special training

9. be not difficult to understand

10. become a member of some course

11. to be much better than others