Hi Lottie,

Do you want to come and celebrate Diwali with me and my family next week? My mum says I can invite a friends and, of course, all my cousins will be there – there are lots them, so it should be fun! There's a really big celebration here in Leicester.

You can wear what you want. You don't have to wear special clothes. Not very of my friends wear traditional clothes, which I think is a pity. Bring warm clothes, though, because we always go out into the streets to celebrate and set off fireworks. You should probably bring a money too because there are a of lovely traditional foods you can buy in the streets.

I hope you can come! I always get really excited about Diwali, and there isn't time to wait now – just a few more days!

See you soon, I hope!

Anita
