Grammar

A | Choose the correct words to complete the conversation.

- Jenn What is that thing?
- Dale Oh, wow. That's an old arcade game. I <sup>1</sup>used to play / was playing that when I was a kid.
- Jenn How much <sup>2</sup>did / was it cost to play?
- Dale At that time, I think we <sup>3</sup>paid / was paying 25 cents to play one game.
- Jenn A quarter to play a game? That is so cheap!
- Dale Yeah, well, we <sup>4</sup>used / used to a lot of quarters <sup>5</sup>before / when we went to the arcade. There used to <sup>6</sup>be / was a big video game arcade next to the movie theater. Sometimes my parents <sup>7</sup>going / went to the theater to watch a movie, and while they were <sup>8</sup>watched / watching, we <sup>9</sup>played / playing video games.
- Jenn That sounds like fun.
- Dale It was.
- Jenn I guess that was <sup>10</sup>before / when the internet existed.
- Dale That's right. Now you can play a lot of these old games, but you can do it on your phone!
