

Test 8

A Fill in the missing word. There are two words you do not need to use.

inspired transform character adapt figure combines rely degree rummage convincing

- 1 Georgia has just completed her in art history and has started working in the museum.
- 2 Ronald was able to this lump of clay into a beautiful sculpture of a dog.
- 3 Pablo Picasso is a well-known in the art world.
- 4 Annie Lebovitz's work in the recent Vanity Fair magazine Joan to take up photography.
- 5 The new show modern dance with classical ballet moves.
- 6 The antique furnishing adds to the restaurant.
- 7 The young film director wants to Shakespeare's Othello into a motion picture.
- 8 Joaquin Phoenix's role as Johnny Cash was very and earned him an Oscar nomination.

B Match the job description in column A to the professional in column B.

Column A

- 9 This person carves and shapes materials into objects.
- 10 This person uses computers to make motion pictures.
- 11 This person carries a camera and film and takes pictures.
- 12 This person makes objects out of clay.
- 13 This person must practise her dance moves many times.

Column B

- A photographer
- B ballerina
- C sculptor
- D potter
- E animator

C Fill in the correct passive tense of the verbs in brackets.

e.g. Many works of art were damaged (damage) in last night's fire.

- 14 Tickets to the art exhibition must (buy) in advance.
- 15 Swan Lake (perform) by the junior ballet class next month.
- 16 The Sistine Chapel (paint) by Michelangelo between 1508 and 1512.
- 17 Only a limited number of students (accept) to the school of performing arts every year.
- 18 Andy Warhol's work can (see) online.
- 19 An exhibition of local artists' work (hold) at the town's art gallery every spring.

D Rewrite the following sentences in the causative, as in the example.

e.g. A local artist will paint Mr Brown's portrait.
Mr Brown will have his portrait painted by a local artist.

- 20 A famous hairdresser styles the actress' hair every day.
.....
- 21 James and Lily hired a professional to decorate their house.
.....
- 22 The dancer has asked a popular designer to make her costume.
.....
- 23 Someone developed our holiday photographs yesterday.
.....
- 24 Lucy's dad is painting her bedroom.
.....
- 25 The singer will ask a well-known artist to design the cover of his new CD.
.....

E Underline the correct item.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 26 This painting must/can't be very valuable. It dates back to the 4th century. 27 The sculpture must/may be Greek, but I'm not sure at all. 28 You can/may have time to get to the art show if you hurry. 29 Stephen can/might study at an art school abroad, but he hasn't really decided yet. | 30 This must/might be a copy of the Mona Lisa. The original is in the Louvre Museum. 31 Jason might/can't be an art student. He hasn't even heard of Picasso! 32 This might/can be an original Andy Warhol painting, but we'll have to ask an expert to be sure. 33 The artist's talent and lively imagination must/can be the key to his success. |
|--|--|

Everyday English

F Choose the correct response.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 34 There's something about this painting that really captures my imagination. 35 I've never been to a Pop Art festival. 36 I think that the illustrations in this book are rather dull. 37 Why don't we join an art class together? 38 Do you like Dali's paintings? | A Yes, I know what you mean. They aren't very colourful. B Great idea. I love painting! C I agree. It's full of atmosphere. D Actually, they make me feel quite depressed. E Really? You don't know what you've been missing! |
|---|--|