

True or False.

Answer All Questions

1. Under the British control there were more succession disputes and internal quarrel.
2. Under Residential System government officials were not given fixed salaries.
3. The disadvantage of residential system was Local people were not given opportunities
4. One of the advantages of residential system was Brunei also began to develop many goods for the export market.
5. Sultan was recognised as the Ruler and made the most important decision.	