

Author's Purpose

Remember: The author's purpose is the reason the author writes a piece of writing.

---

Directions: Read each sentence, determine whether the author's purpose was to inform, persuade, express ideas or feelings, or entertain.

- 1) If you buy three pizzas, we will give you another one for free!

Author's purpose:

- 2) The furious storm blew sheets of rain that flooded the town like a tidal wave.

Author's purpose:

- 3) Jupiter is the fifth planet from the sun and has over sixty moons.

Author's purpose:

- 4) Tears streamed down Rita's face when she saw how many people had come to help her.

Author's purpose:

- 5) The state of Florida has more than twenty-one million people.

Author's purpose:

- 6) I believe that Davy Crockett National Forest is a beautiful place.

Author's purpose: