

DESCRIBING PAIN

A Rewrite the word on the space provided burning

tingling

sharp

shooting

throbbing

dull ache

stabbing

cramping

gnawing

B. Click on the name of the pain that you hear.

tangling

tingling

tungling

stabbing

stabling

stobbing

throbbing

trobbling

throbling

shatting

showing

shooting

charp

shirp

sharp

cramping

caramping

cramping

boring

burning

broning

gnawing

knowing

nohay

doll ache

dull ache

Do ache

C. Complete the description of the type of pain.

- 1.) Tingling pain feels like pins and needles 5.) Sharp pain is strong and sudden 2.) Throbbing pain comes and goes rhythmically 6.) Gnawing pain feels like it is eating you 3.) Shooting pain travels fast along part of your body 7.) Dull ache is steady and not too painful 4.) Cramping pain feels like a muscle is being squeezed 8.) Burning pain feels like fire 9.) Stabbing pain feels like something sharp is stuck into you

D. You must click on the microphone icon and name the pain

- 1) Pain that feels like pins and needles is called _____ pain.
2) Pain that feels like fire is called _____ pain.
3) Pain that feels like a muscle is being squeezed is _____ pain.
4) Pain that is strong and sudden is _____ pain.
5) Pain that comes and goes rhythmically is _____ pain.
6) Pain that feels like it is eating you is _____ pain.
7) Pain that is steady and not too painful is called _____ pain.
8) Pain that feels like something sharp is stuck into you is _____ pain.
9) Pain that travels fast along part of your body _____ pain.

- E. 1. Complete the sentences with comparatives or superlatives of the adjective in parenthesis.
2. Rate the pain from 0 to 10 of how the patient feels at the moment

- 1 Acetaminophen is _____ than some other painkillers. (cheap)
2. This is _____ than pulling out a tooth. (painful)
3. My brother has the _____ pain in his right knee. (unbearable)
4. His back pain is _____ than his headache. (mild)
5. The nurse had the _____ headache. Today she is feeling no pain at all. (bad)