

ARTICLES AND QUANTIFIERS

Complete the sentences with the correct form of there is or there are. Type the answers.

1. a great market. It's on Park Street.
2. a pub on this street?
3. any cars in the car park.
4. any news for you.
5. any interesting sights in the area?
6. five people in the town square. Can you see them?

Choose the correct answer.

1. Are there any / some children in the playground?
2. Is there a / the boy on the zebra crossing?
3. Are there many / much people on the bridge?
4. Is there a / an amusement park near the train station?
5. Is there many / a lot of fruit in the bowl?

Complete the questions with How much or How many. Choose the correct answer.

1. water do you drink every day?
2. markets are there in your town?
3. does sugar cost at this supermarket?
4. types of fish can you get here?
5. islands has Japan got?

Match the questions to the answers below. Drag the numbers.

1 How much water do you drink every day?

2 How many markets are there in your town?

3 How much does sugar cost at this supermarket?

4 How many types of fish can you get here?

5 How many islands has Japan got?

☐ Three – salmon, tuna and shark.

☐ I think there are two.

☐ A kilogram is £1.

☐ About two litres.

☐ Thousands, but four big ones – Honshu, Hokkaido, Shikoku and Kyushu.

Complete the text with one or two words in each space. Type the answers.

VISITING JAPAN

Japan is very interesting country. One of the best places to experience Japanese culture is at Tsukiji market in Tokyo. a huge selection of traditional Japanese food at the market. also local restaurants on the street, so you can order sushi for breakfast or lunch. There any places to have dinner at the market because the restaurants close early in the afternoon. But there a problem finding things to do in Tokyo at night because the city has got exciting nightlife. However, Tokyo hasn't got public transport after 1.00 am because trains and buses stop at that time. But there are a taxis, so you can still get around. does a taxi cost? Unfortunately, it's more expensive than the trains and buses.