

Vertebrate animals

• Select the correct word.

Most mammals have got four LEGS / FINS.

Birds have got FUR / FEATHERS on their body.

Amphibians have got slimy SKIN / SCALES.

Fishes use their LUNGS / GILLS to get oxygen from water.

OVIPAROUS / VIVIPAROUS animals lay eggs.

Mammals breathe air through their LUNGS / GILLS.

Fishes have got SCALES / FUR on their body.

VERTEBRATE / INVERTEBRATE animals have got a backbone.

Amphibians babies breathe air through their LUNGS / GILLS.

Amphibians adults breathe air through their LUNGS / GILLS and their skin.

Reptiles breathe air through their GILLS / LUNGS.

Reptiles have got SCALES / FINS.

Amphibians are VIVIPAROUS / OVIPAROUS.

BIRDS / REPTILES incubate their eggs on nests.

• Match.

MAMMALS	have got feathers, a beak and wings.
BIRDS	can live on land and in the water.
FISHES	have got scales and four short legs.
REPTILES	have got fur, four legs and a tail.
AMPHIBIANS	have got scales and breathe air through their gills.

