

Verbs: to be, to have, to do

Read the sentences carefully. Does the sentence need a present or past verb?
Type or write the correct form of the verbs.

1. to be present: am/is/are past: was/were

- a) He _____ at home now.
- b) They _____ in Launceston last weekend.
- c) I _____ a nurse now. Ten years ago I _____ a student.
- d) We _____ very happy because winter has finished.
- e) It _____ warm and sunny today.
- f) Last week it _____ windy and rainy.
- g) Jan _____ in hospital last week.
- h) She _____ okay now.
- i) Sorry, I made a mistake yesterday. You _____ right and I _____ wrong.
- j) Those three friends _____ always together.

2.to have

present: have/has past: had

- a) He _____ three children and two grandchildren.
- b) They _____ a good time in Launceston last weekend.
- c) Every night I _____ too much homework.
- d) We _____ a new house now.
- e) Sydney _____ good weather most of the year.
- f) Last week we _____ a lot of rain.
- g) Jan _____ an X-ray at the hospital last week.
- h) She _____ a bad headache and needs to rest.
- i) Wow, look at your new car! You _____ a Toyota last year but now you _____ a Mazda.
- j) The three friends _____ an argument yesterday.
- k) The months April, June, September and November _____ 30 days.

3.to do

present: do/does

past: did

- a) He a lot of gardening but not much housework.
- b) They karate every Wednesday evening.
- c) Every night I my English homework.
- d) Last week we some spring cleaning.
- e) It not rain for two months last year.
- f) We not sleep much last night.
- g) Jan an exercise class then ran 4 km.
- h) Every week she all the cooking and shopping.
- i) My new car 100 km/4L of petrol.
- My old car 100 km/7L!
- j) they like the movie they saw?
- k) Which season of the year you like the most?
- l) You are very good. You a lot for the community.