

A LOT/ALOT, WHO/WHOSE, and THEN/THAN

1. I have _____ of friends.
2. I need to leave. _____ car is parked behind mine?
3. I'm going to take a shower, _____ go to bed.
4. _____ going to the concert this weekend?
5. I'd rather take the train _____ ride the bus.
6. _____ of people do not know that "alot" is not a word.
7. My Aunt Sally, _____ my dad's sister, is coming to visit next week.
8. John is a faster runner _____ Joe, but Maria runs faster _____ both of them!
9. _____ idea was it to eat dinner here? The service is terrible.
10. If you eat all of your dinner, _____ you can have dessert.
11. She is much younger _____ I am.
12. I didn't study, so I don't have _____ of confidence that I will do well on my math test.
13. I like pie better _____ cake.
14. _____ car is that? They left their lights on.
15. They argued and argued, _____, finally, they came to a decision.

