

Words You Can Take To Work

Across

2. to depend on someone or something
5. a person's way of earning or getting money to buy things that are necessary to live
6. to make or produce things, often with machines
8. trustworthy or worthy of trust
9. a form that a person fills out to ask for something, such as a job or a credit card
10. having the skills that allow a person to do an activity or a job well

Down

1. someone who has had special training for a job
3. the work or job that someone does
4. on time
7. a person who knows a great deal (a lot) about a topic or how to do something