

In the following questions each sentence has four words or phrases in italics. The four italicised parts of the sentence are marked (A),(B),(C), and (D).

Identify the one italicised word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

1. Whenever you will come (A) to us, you may find (B) something (C) to your taste (D)
2. Inspite (A) all the troubles during the last (B) four years, the Browns (C) were still very optimistic about their (D) future.
3. If it were not for (A) the unexpected sound, we would be standing still (B) not knowing that only a few blocks away was (C) a large fire. (D)
4. There was (A) a lot of noise all around, everybody was (B) shouting. And only Bob's and Mary's (C) mother was keeping silence. (D)
5. Would you like (A) to play (B) another (C) game with me? — I am to choose, am I not? (D)
6. We were all (A) sure of her winning (B) the competition, but the news that she lost were (C) quite unexpected for all of us. (D)
7. He would have never (A) let Julia to stay (B) in town, if he had known that staying(C) meant such a long (D) departure.
8. "No, thanks," she replied, "I'd better take (A) a taxi than go (B) in your car when you are drunk (C) like a pig". (D)
9. "Are you sure that she will come (A) to us? She is so busy (B) all these days." — "Well, where there is a wish, (C) there is a way." (D)
10. I'm afraid I won't be able (A) to visit (B) you when I'll come (C) to Ramenskoye. (D)

