

Nº4. Translate the highlighted words

1. A possible success of human rights activists is the planned replacement of the leadership of the Chelyabinsk PSC.
2. The head of the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs Muammer Guler initially denied the construction, then announced that the wall is being constructed to provide border security.
3. Economic development and scientific progress will be principal features of that future world.
4. Instead, $2.3 billion was invested directly into the Iraqi oil sector.
5. Mutually beneficial cooperation of the Parties is a prerequisite for conclusion of such agreements.
6. This objective is likely to be fulfilled on Tuesday when the company makes a formal announcement about the cuts.
7. In Eastern Bohemia the day will be mostly clear to partly cloudy, and dry.
8. Observing the EU from the outside is like watching a train collision in slow motion – and one that was announced at the station.
9. The Kremlin has promised to increase security after the Paris Attacks.
10. Indeed, Mexico is slowly learning how to carry out a dual task: to defend its national interests and also be part of the international community, to support the US at times and oppose it at others.