

Add the punctuation to these sentences.

Use speech marks, commas, full stops, apostrophes, exclamation marks and question marks.

Please stay a little longer cried Sammy

My teacher said If only you had studied harder you would have got a better grade

Would you like to come to my house for dinner asked my best friend

Its so cold today Im shaking shivered Larson

Dont forget to look both ways before crossing the road said Mum.

One day Ill be an astronaut boasted Rex

Do you really think so asked Karis

If I train hard enough it should be possible pondered Rex

Well I hope youre right Rex but if you cant be an astronaut then you can always come to work with me as a road sweeper laughed Karis

Put these sentences in the right order.
Add capital letters and punctuation.

bus stop the does whitechurch at street but really i wanted is nintendo birthday a switch my for mum too expensive said it shouted burglar the stop policeman he after ran as the asked can have quietly i pencil new a sarah dad said shouldn't you run corridors the in too the just cried is mary difficult far test only is at but also at he great not is gary good singing dancing finding french how lessons are kim you eiffel france located the paris tower is in a lot want everest but money to i mount climb costs it of german would speak like you to learn to you visit the if could anywhere world in would where be it underwater swimming like i dont scares because me it

Write your own sentences. Remember to use capital letters, punctuation, articles and the correct sentence structure.

Sentence 1: about school

Sentence 2: about home

Sentence 3: about your family

Sentence 4: about your hobby

Sentence 5: something your friend said to you

Sentence 6: a command your teacher gave you

Sentence 7: a question

Sentence 8: about a country you would like to visit

Sentence 9: about the job you want to do

Sentence 10: about the future