2 IDENTIFY Read the sentences. Match the word in bold in each sentence to its definition.

1 Some people earn income additionally by investing money in other businesses.
2 I don't have many assets—just a car and a nice bicycle.
3 Economists don't always agree on financial policies.
4 Entrepreneurs often work long hours as they try to get their businesses going.
5 New laws might potentially affect the prices of certain goods.
6 My time is very precious to me, so I don't like to waste it.
7 I don't invest in the stock market. I think it's too risky, so I choose safer options.
8 Do you want to attend this seminar on saving for retirement with me?
9 The government sometimes takes action that will stimulate the economy by creating new jobs.
10 The idea of failure terrifies me. I'm so afraid of not succeeding.

a a useful or valuable thing (n.)
b as an extra factor or to introduce a new argument (adv.)
c an expert in economics or the branch of knowledge concerned with wealth
d able to develop or happen in the future
e of great value (adj.)
f a conference or other meeting for discussion or training g encourage development or increased activity in h full of the possibility of danger, failure, or loss
i cause to feel extreme fear
j someone who sets up a business that might fail in the hope of earning a profit