

Listen to the audio as many times as you need to, and then fill in the blanks.

Jeyong, Korea

I like living in _____ more than the country because I like the crowdedness of people all _____ walking around and _____ like going to _____, _____ with many people and talking to _____ people is something that I like very _____.

Al, England

I think _____ I'd like to do _____, so have, be _____ and have a house in the country and a house in the city and _____ my _____ in the country, in a _____ house, and go to the city on _____ and _____.

Joel, America

Well, I've _____ in very big cities for _____ of my _____: Tokyo, Bangkok, Los Angeles, and now is the _____ time ever that _____ lived in the country and I'm _____ that I like it _____ better. I have _____ to do things that I could _____ do in the city, like play _____ or even _____ the _____, and I'm _____ a peaceful _____ a lot more than the _____ city life.

Martin, United States

If I _____ to live in the city or country, _____ have to say _____, in the city. I _____ in the country in a very small _____ and it was _____ boring. I enjoyed the clean _____ and the _____ around but it was _____. The city is _____ more _____ and a lot more to do and see and _____, so _____ and _____, the city for me is the _____ to _____.

Mitchell, United States

I would _____ live in the _____ because I'm from the _____ and everything's more _____, relax, and time _____ to go by _____. _____ to the city, it seems like every one is in a _____, moving around fast, _____ to get things done as soon as _____, that's why I'd rather _____ in the countryside.

Shuan, Canada

I think that living in the city _____ be so much _____ than living in the country. I like being _____, and I like _____ so living in the country would be, I would _____, boring, compared to the city.