

to , for , on

Which preposition ?

We add 'to' before verbs when we want to say we went to a place. We add 'for' before nouns. Note that some are verb-nouns. They look like verbs but have 'a / an' before them. Different types of journeys, holidays, and trips are added 'on' before them.

1. We go _____ school by bus.
2. Let's go _____ a drive in the car.
3. Let's go _____ a picnic next Sunday
4. We will go _____ the new mall tomorrow.
5. Dad and Mom sometimes go out _____ coffee.
6. Helen came _____ Sri Lanka last year.
7. Granddad went _____ a walk.
8. Would you care to join us _____ a boat ride?
9. When will you go _____ your next trip?
10. We took this photo when we went _____ vacation.
11. The boys went _____ an exploration in the jungle.
12. The kid go _____ the park every Sunday

