

VOCABULARY TEST

Name: Surname:

A. Complete the sentences with the right word from the box below.

elude – confer – accentuate – convey – decipher – orchestrate – primarily promptly – on average – irrational – ravenous – burdensome – conspicuous manual – minuscule – immaterial – startled – apt – advocate – deterrent

1. She is a passionate of "organic" clothes.
2. I need some time to with my lawyer.
3. The city's police chief says they arrest,, 300 people each day.
4. Although highly effective, the nightly infusions are painful and, to patients, resulting in non-compliance.
5. We're concerned with keeping expenditure down.
6. He still works on an old typewriter.
7. His poetry a great sense of religious devotion.
8. He was when dozens of strangers showed up at his office.
9. "Unusual", yes, that's a very description.
10. Growing boys have appetites.
11. They had minor breakthroughs but real success them.
12. We'll have to leave fairly if we want to catch that train.
13. Can you the writing on this envelope?
14. He tried not to look and moved slowly along the back of the room.
15. Tougher prison sentences may act as a to other would-be offenders.
16. Her dress was tightly belted, the slimness of her waist.
17. All she gave him to eat was two pieces of toast.
18. It's totally, but I'm frightened of mice.
19. Whether the book is well or badly written is - it has an important message.
20. The White House a series of events to showcase the president on the global stage.

