

1. Complete:

All _____ are made up of tiny units called _____.

Depending on the number of cells, living things can be:

- _____ (a single cell)
- _____ (more than one cell)

2. How are animals and plants formed? Complete and choose:

It is made up of cells that perform the same function:

In the human body, organ systems work together to keep us alive:

They are the basic unit of life:

It is formed from two or more different types of tissue:

Organs work together within each organ system to carry out a function:

3. What makes us human? Complete:

- Humans have the longest _____ in the animal kingdom.
- As humans, we are conscious of the world around, ourselves and our own identity: _____.
- We can create and develop _____ (Internet, laptops...)
- We have large and _____ brains that allow us to understand, learn and store information.
- We can communicate each other through _____.

4. Which are our vital functions? Complete:

- _____ is the process of taking in food and oxygen.
- _____ allows humans to receive information and react to changes around them.
- _____ is the growth of new cells and the creation of new life.