Reading comprehension: My town

My name is Cathy and I'm from Cambridge in England. There's a famous university in Cambridge. It's very old. There are also lots of cafés and shops too, but there aren't any beaches.

I go to school in Cambridge. The school is about three kilometers from my house. It's near the park and it's very big. There are 1,200 students. There's a library at the school, but there isn't a swimming pool.

I really like Cambridge. In my opinion, it's a great town.
