

Name: _____ Date: _____

Amazing Alliterations

Alliteration is the repetition of consonant sounds in nearby words. Alliteration creates both rhythm and mood.

Do the sentences show alliteration? Choose alliteration or not alliteration to describe the sentences below.

1. Jennifer visited the House of Assembly on Wednesday.
alliteration not alliteration
2. Garvin gathered green leaves from the Garden of the Groves.
alliteration not alliteration
3. Cuddles the cat caused a colossal catastrophe.
alliteration not alliteration
4. The mist hovered over the graveyard giving Gina giant goosebumps.
alliteration not alliteration
5. Emancipation Day commemorates the end of slavery.
alliteration not alliteration

Complete the sentences to create alliterations.

6. Trevor threw the tattered _____ in the trash.
7. Gary the _____ grouper greeted me gaily.
8. _____ spiders scurried silently to safely.
9. A kind _____ keeps _____.