

Name: _____

Date: _____

Social Studies

Enforcing the law

Drag the law enforcement agency to their matching image below.

Royal Bahamas Police Force

Royal Bahamas Defence Force

1. _____

2. _____

Which law enforcement agency is described below?

3. This agency maintains law an order, preserves the peace, prevents and detects crime, apprehend offenders and brings them to court.

4. This agency patrols our territorial waters. _____

5. This agency collects a great deal of money for the government. _____

6. This agency checks all boxes and bags brought into the country.

7. This agency stops ship from polluting. _____

8. This agency controls the flow of immigrants who enter the country.

9. Draw a line to match the people to their descriptions.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| a. The highest position on the police force | constable |
| b. Most law enforcement agencies comes under his/her portfolio | commodore |
| c. The starting rank on the police force | commissioner |
| d. The highest position on the Defence Force | Minister of National Security |

Answer the following questions on the lines provided.

10. Other than New Providence, which Bahamian island has a Defence Force Base?

11. What year was the Royal Bahamas Police Force established? (1) _____

12. What year was an Act of Parliament passed that created the Defence Force? _____

13. How far do territorial boundaries extend from the coast? _____ km

14. What name is given to people who fish illegally in the country of another? _____

15. What are two duties of the Royal Bahamas Defence Force?

16. Why is it important to stop poachers?

Let's talk about it!

How would an increase in crime affect tourism and our country?

