

Task. Choose the correct word

1. You                      give the child everything he wants.
2. He                      eat too much. He is rather plump.
3. You                      spend all your money on make-up.
4. You                      stay in bed when you caught a cold.
5. This weekend                      be nice.
6. Your daughter looks so tired. She                      go to bed at once.
7. The British Museum is very interesting. You                      see it.
8. It's so cold outside. Your child                      stay outdoors so many hours.
- 9 I don't think I                      read this book. It's boring.
10. If you need money, you                      ask me.
11. The kids                      eat so much sweets.
12. Tom! You                      argue with your Granny like that!
13. I don't like the sound. The car                      be sent to garage.
14. He                      be more attentive while driving a car.
15. She                      see a doctor today .
16. I don't think you                      book a room in his hotel. It's too expensive.
17. – Mary, you                      clean your teeth twice a day, – the dentist said .
18.                      we try to finish everything before the coffee-break?
19. Mark                      ask that stupid question.
20. You                      tell the lie.