in(to) and out (of)

After a verb of movement we use either in / out or into / out of + place, e.g.,
Come in. Come into my office.
He ran out. He ran out of the room.

b 4:57)) Listen and check.

c Cover the words. Where did Snowy go?

He went down the steps...

away, off, and back

We use away to express movement to another place, e.g., Go away! I don't want to speak to you. The man ran away when he saw the police officer.

We use back to express movement to the place where something or somebody was before, e.g., After dinner we went back to our hotel. Their dog ran away and never came back.

We use off to express movement down or away, e.g., Get off the bus at the train station. The man ran off when he saw the police officer.
