

1 Circle.

I just read an 1 interested / interesting article about animals and sleeping. Do you know that cats can sleep for about 12 hours every day? When they're 2 boring / bored, they just fall asleep. Giraffes are completely different. They only sleep for a few minutes and they sleep with their eyes open. I think that's 3 frightening / frightened, don't you? When we're on the school bus, Angelo always sleeps with his mouth open. I'm always very 4 embarrassed / embarrassing when I'm sitting next to him.
