

FEELINGS

PART- A

Put the following personal qualities in the right column. (Meanings are given in the glossary to help you)

Good

Bad

Good	Bad

rude

polite

patient

mean moody

hot-tempered generous shy knowledgeable cheerful

talkative

wise

PART-B

Fill in the blanks with a suitable quality.

- Sheila always shouts at others.
She is very
- When I have a problem Grandpa always has a solution.
He is very
- I can see a smile on Mrs. Ross every morning.
She is very
- Becky shares her things with all.
She is
- Kiki chats in the class.
She gets punished because she is
- My mother never shouts at me.
She is very
- I can't talk in front of others.
I feel
- Sandy never says sorry if she makes a mistake.
She is very
- Johnny made all the girls cry.
He is
- Hans can get angry or sad quickly.
He is very
- She greeted me and offered me a seat.
She is very
- Mr. Anderson knows about every subject.
He is very

FEELINGS

GLOSSARY

talkative	- a person who talks a lot
wise	- has cleverness, experience and good judgment knowledgeable	- has a lot of knowledge patient	- can bear a lot
rude	- speaking bad words and is in bad behavior
polite	- in good behavior
generous	- shares things and gives to others cheerful	- always in a happy mood